

Property Taxes

On April 6 the City announced several deadline extensions:

- The City has extended the due date for property tax bills from May 1 to June 1 to give residents more flexibility during the ongoing public health crisis.
- The City also extended the due date for residential and personal exemptions from April 1 to June 1.
- The City is waiving interest on late property tax payments until June 30.