

Small Business Impact and Resources

- The Mayor's Office of Economic Development has put together a number of resources for small businesses and residents, including a directory of Boston restaurants still delivering and/or offering takeout. The results of the City's first survey of small business impacts is now available and at least three more surveys are anticipated.
- District Hall Boston, a collaborative public-private partnership envisioned by the City of Boston and the Boston Planning and Development Agency, has developed a list of grants and resources for community artists, entrepreneurs and non-profits.
- On April 2nd, the City announced a $2 million Small Business Relief Fund to assist Boston's small businesses most directly impacted by closures, policies, or general loss of revenue due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The fund, administered by the Mayor's Office of Economic Development (OED), will begin accepting applications for grants to local businesses on Monday, April 6, 2020.