

Shattuck City Champion Award

What is a Champion? In keeping with the strictest definition of the word, a “champion” is an advocate or defender, one who does battle for another’s rights or honor, a person who shows marked superiority. In keeping with this definition, the Research Bureau Awards Committee established the criteria for the Shattuck City Champion Award.

In 1998, the Shattuck City Champion Award was established to honor a business leader and a nonprofit leader for their significant contributions to the Boston civic community. Since 1998, 45 private sector leaders have been recognized as Shattuck City Champions.

Because Boston is a city rich in leadership and commitment from the business and nonprofit sectors, it is fitting that we formally recognize the contributions to the public good that have been made by members of the private sector. With this award, we honor those good works and accomplishments.
